

MILITARY ORGANIZATIONS OF THE

LEGEND

This chart identifies key officials known or believed to hold positions through the Military District level in the military organizations of the People's Republic of China. Names in red identify members of the Politburo, and names in green identify members or alternate members of the 10th Chinese Communist Party Central Committee. The following abbreviations are used:

MD Military District
MR Military Region

MILITARY-INDUSTRIAL COMPLEX

The National Defense Scientific and Technological Commission supervises weapons research and development. The functions of the National Defense Industries Office remain obscure. Through its regional offices, however, it apparently coordinates the military with the civilian sectors of the economy. The defense-oriented ministries of the State Council supervise the production of military hardware and supplies by diversified plants.

MILITARY TRAINING SCHOOLS

The Ministry of National Defense supervises the Academy of Military Science. In addition, the three departments and the various service arms of the People's Liberation Army supervise their own specialized schools.
